

Professional Organizations

Career and Technology Education teachers and administrators are encouraged to join a variety of professional organizations. These may be either general CTE organizations, or organizations more specific to a particular program area or specialty, as shown by the examples below.

- Association for Career and Technical Education (ACTE), formerly AVA - Colorado is a unified state which means that membership in ACTE includes a membership in your division.
- Colorado Association for Career and Technical Education (CACTE), formerly CVA
- Colorado Association of Career and Technical Administrators (CACTA), formerly CAVA
- Colorado Business Educators Association (CBEA)
- Colorado Marketing Educators Association (CMEA)
- American Association of Family and Consumer Sciences
- National Business Education Association
